CAST NOTES

Sandy Sandifer is a newcomer to the stage of the Sumter Little Theatre. Mrs. Sandifer is a Sumter native and is employed as a customer service representative with the National Bank of South Carolina.

Jonathon Crow is a native of Rock Hill, S. C. Mr. Crow is teaching Drama, Speech, and English at Sumter High School. His theatrical experience is varied and includes work with the American-Irish Repertory Co. in Dublin, Ireland last summer and the Winthrop Theater. This is his first appearance on the Sumter Little Theatre stage.

Shirley Housen is a veteran to Sumter Little Theatre audiences. Among her many appearances on the Sumter Little Theatre stage she had the leading feminine role in "All My Sons". Mrs. Housen has directed three productions for the theatre; she has directed one musical and sung in several. Her community service includes volunteer work with the American Red Cross and tape recording written material for use by the blind.

Ken Law will be remembered as the older Patrick in last years production of Mame. He is a native of Huntington, Indiana and a graduate of Indiana University. Captian Law is a USAF flyer stationed at Shaw AFB.
